DIFFERENTIATORS

19+ Years Law Enforcement

Command-level law enforcement leadership with demonstrated expertise in security operations, protective services, and public safety administration.

U.S. Army Veteran

Military service background providing mission-oriented discipline, operational planning proficiency, and a deep understanding of federal mission requirements and standards.

Executive Protection Specialist

Trained and experienced in high-risk protective operations, threat analysis, advance work, and dignitary-level security protocols for government and private sector clients.

PAST PERFORMANCE

Vanguard Strategic Solutions brings directly transferable operational experience across law enforcement, executive protection, military service, and public safety administration. Our leadership team has delivered results in high-stakes environments that mirror federal agency requirements — including threat mitigation, emergency planning, protective operations, and security program oversight.

Law Enforcement Operations

Led and managed law enforcement operations at command level, overseeing personnel, resource deployment, threat response, and public safety programs across jurisdictions. Applied risk-based decision making under time-sensitive, high-consequence conditions.

Executive Protection Programs

Planned and executed protective operations for high-profile individuals, including advance security coordination, threat assessment, and rapid response protocols. Experience includes managing teams and coordinating with local, state, and federal law enforcement entities.

Emergency & Continuity Planning

Developed and implemented emergency response plans, continuity of operations (COOP) frameworks, and incident command structures aligned with ICS/NIMS standards. Trained personnel in emergency protocols and coordinated multi-agency response efforts.
